

Ongoing work performed in the Rotating Biological Building (RBC) including painting of the structural steel and lighting upgrades.

Photograph above shows the Bio Secondary Clarifier drained before repairs.

Photograph above shows the installation ongoing during the Bio Secondary Clarifier upgrade.

Photographs show the assembly of parts and the finished Bio Secondary Clarifier project.

Photographs depicting Cured-In-Place Lining work performed on Newkirk Avenue sewer system.

